

Scientific Seminar Series at RCT Spring 2010

- 18 March 15.00-16.30 Healing Invisible Wounds
by Richard F. Mollica, M.D., M.A.R., Director of the Harvard Programme in Refugee Trauma (HPRT) of Massachusetts General Hospital and Harvard Medical School and James Lavelle, LICSW, Director of International Programmes and Community Organizing for the Harvard Programme in Refugee Trauma (HPRT)
- 19 March 10.00-11.30 ”Traumatic Head Injury” in Torture Survivors
by Richard Mollica and James Lavelle
- 24 March 14.30-16.00 Current conditions for Asylum Seeking Children in Denmark
Asylum centres are not suitable for children
by Eva Smith, Professor in judicial Science, Copenhagen University Master of your own house, a study of the well-being of asylum seeking families after moving to their own house by Karen Louise Christiansen, Social Consultant, the Danish Red Cross Asylum Department
What do we know about the health of asylum seeking children from Danish and international studies?
by Edith Montgomery, Psychologist and Research Director, RCT
- PLEASE NOTE THAT THESE LECTURES ARE GIVEN IN DANISH
- 26 March 14.00-15.30 Research Designs for Traumatized Patients
by Robert Gatchel, Professor & Department Chair, Psychology, University of Texas, USA
- 6 April 14.30-16.00 Measuring Human Rights
by Todd Landman, Professor of Government, University of Essex, UK
- 2 June 14.30-16.00 Consequences of the War against Terror on Immigrant and Refugee Children
By Cecile Rousseau, Research and Clinical Psychiatrist, Director of the Transcultural Child Psychiatry Clinic, Montreal Children’s Hospital, McGill University

All seminars will be held in RCT’s canteen, ground floor, Borgergade 13, 1401 Copenhagen Entrance is free of charge

NB: Please consult www.rct.dk (choose “Activities”) for any changes or cancellations